

MISTRESS OF CEREMONIES

Ms. Tyisha Fernandes

Tyisha Fernandes has been currently working as a reporter in the WSB-TV since two years. She did her graduation from Howard University in Broadcast Journalism in the year 2002. Then she joined NBC Newswest 9 as a weekend Anchor and weekday reporter and worked there for almost two years.

She is also an owner and instructor for TD Zumba since last five years and a half. She has worked as a reporter for Fox 4 News, and Fox 25 News, before being in Black Triangle Media and WSB-TV.

Early life and Education

Tyisha Fernandes was born on 15 May 1979 in Brockton, Massachusetts. She attended Brockton High School for her High School Diploma from the year 1993 to 1997. She attended the University of Massachusetts, Amherst where she stayed for a year and moved to the University of Massachusetts for another one year.

She completed her bachelor's degree in Broadcast Journalism from Howard University in the year 2002.

Beginning Career

Tyisha Fernandes landed her first job in January 2004 as weekend anchor and weekday reporter for NBC Newswest 9 and worked there until May 2006 for two years and five months. In the same year, she moved to Fox 4 News from May 2006 itself as a weekend anchor and weekday reporter in Florida.

She anchored and co-produced weekend shows and reported three days a week. Tyisha earned an Edward R. Murrow Award for continuous coverage of the transportation problems in the school district.

After Eboni K. Williams left Fox 25 News after four years and seven months she then moved to Fox 25 News and did anchoring and reporting for around two years. Eboni covered stories such as 'The Capture of Whitey Bulger' and 'The Hepatitis C Outbreak in NH'. There she presented local and national stories live as well as pre-produced it. Being on Fox 25 News, she uncovered issues in the community that developed into exclusive stories as she did the morning breaking news, sports news, and community issues.

As a reporter and a Zumba instructor

Tyisha Fernandes has been the owner and teaching Zumba for the last five and half years in TB Zumba in Brockton, Massachusetts. She opened this training institution in April 2011.

Tyisha has also been a reporter for Black Triangle Media since November 2012 and developed a storytelling technique that resonates with viewers. She had also presented feature reports in a concise and engaging manner.

Then Tyisha Fernandes joined WSB-TV as a reporter in October 2014. She is working there for two years.

Personal Life

Tyisha Fernandes has been working in this field for quite a while. She is always active on her social networking sites like Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. She does frequent updates in her posts to social sites. Though we can know many of her current information about her day-to-day professional life, her personal life is still in shade.
